GRANT IN THE ABBEY.

A TRIBUTE TO AMERICA AND AMERICANS

-FEATURES OF THE SERVICE. LONDON, Aug. 4 .- The memorial service held at 3 this afternoon in Westminster Abbey was a touching and beautiful tribute to Gen. Grant, and a not less beautiful testimony to the good will which Englishmen feel toward America. Such a gathering was probably never before seen at this season, when nearly everybody has left London. The queen sent Col. Henry Peter Ewart as a representative. Lieut. Gen. Sir ment's policy, but declined to go into Dighton Probyn was present on behalf of the Prince of Wales: Col. William Colville for the Duke of Edinburgh, Maj. Alfred Egerton for the Duke of Connaught. The Duke of Cambridge, Gen. Wolseley, Adjt. Gen. Sir Archibald Allison, Sir Gen. Graham and numerous staff officers represented the British army. Of the government there were present in person two cabinet ministers, the Earl of Iddesleigh and the Earl of Harrowby; of the late government, Mr. Gladstone, who came from the country against the doctor's orders; the Right Hon. Mr. Foster, and the Right Hon. Mr. Shaw-Lefevre.

There is but opinion among Americans in London that the honor was worthy of the man to whom it was offored. Every acknowledgment is due the dean of Westminster, who, like so many others, returned to London ex-pressly for this service, and to Arch-eacon Farrar. The chief burden of the work of the American committee has fallen on the American minister and Secretary White. To all these, and to all Englishmen present, we are all grateful.—Smalley to New York Tribune.

A DEMOCRATIC DECISION.

Virginia Democrats have vigorously denounced the recent opinion of the United States Supreme Court against repudiation as an invasion of state sovereignty, and characterized it as the work of a Republican bench. The Rich-mond Whig very aprly points out the fact that the Supreme Court consists of eight Republican and one (Field) Demoeight Republican and one (Field) Demo-cratic member. The Republicans were evenly divided on the question. Mat-thews, Harlan, Blatchford, and Woods were in favor of the opinion; Waite, Ailler, Bradley, and Gray were opposed to it. Justice Field sided with the former, and hence it was by the only Democratic vote on the hence, that the view we obnoxious to Virginia was made the decis-ion of the court. The Democrats of the Old Dominion will have to abandon their political attack on the Supreme Court.--

LAND'S BOOK.

We are sorry that the lady of the white house has written either so ignorantly or so maliciously. We do not think she intended to wound Catholics. She belongs to the transcendental New England school of peculiar people, who, under the plea of speak out what they think, often speaking without thinking at all, without studying the subject they are talking about. The fearless motto they adopt is an excellent one, but it is a two edged sword in the hands of an ill trained intellect. It cuts both ways. A man, or a woman either, when adopting it, ought to make sure they are right before going ahead. We have no unkindly feeling for Miss We have no unkindly leeling for stars (Cleveland, although she has stricken that which is dearer to us than our own self—our spiritual mother. But we do most gravely think that the publication of this book at this particular juncture is a most unfortunate thing. Had it been printed two years ago it would have fallen stillborn from the press; just now it is being spread broadcast over the country, its popularity being derived from the circumstances already indicated, and everywhere it is carrying a profound miscon-ception of the Catholic church. We might go on to speak of the literary cor-ruption it will produce by its stilted, un-natural style, coupled with shallow thinking, and a morbid optimism in luman nature. But the lesser evils are swallowed in the greater one—the gra-tuitous insult which Miss Cleveland, the lady of the white house, offers the Catholic church.—Catholic Mirror.

WHAT THE OBJECTION IS. The royal family objection to Batten-berg is his poverty and the fact that he is the offspring of a morganatic marriage— as it is politely put—which makes Beatrice's marriage with him a mes-alliance. But while the matter of mes-alliance is prominent it is uncomfortably recalled that the queen's uncle, the Duke of Sussex, married the wife of a London alderman bearing the name of Buggins. All this is 'in the family.' The people of England object because Battenberg all in the effort to be made for his naturalization, and this objection comes from the officers in the army who see in

A PERTINENT INQUIRY. Experience teaches that when monu-ments are to be crected to the memory of illustrious men the funds therefor must be collected while the memory of their deeds is green and while the popu-lace is in the proper mood. Delay is al-ways embarrassing and ofttimes fatal to movements of this character. What is New York city doing in behalf of the great Grant mausoleum in Riverside Park?-New York World. GEN. M'CLELLAN'S TRIP. No intelligent man will censure George B. McClellan for starting on a pleasure trip to the Pacific coast on the eve of Gen. Grant's funeral. It is well known that McClellan has long occupied the position of the twelfth man on the jury, always reproaching the other eleven for their stubborn estimate of Grant's character and achievements.—Philadclphia Press.
